

Theatre Vocabulary

Across

- 2. person in charge of the stage properties, or props, for a production
- 3. a writer who writes television or movie scripts
- 7. the person who designs the set for a production
- 8. the person responsible for the entire production, including obtaining financial backing, paying bills, and hiring the director and staff
- 9. someone who watches a play

- 10. not for profit theatre that uses local talent for a play

Down

- 1. person who applies the makeup to the performers
- 4. the person who designs or plans the costumes to be worn in a play or stage production
- 5. the script written for a movie or television
- 6. someone who acts in a play