

Theories of Emotion

Across

2. Cannon-Bard believed that the physiological responses and the experience of emotions occurred when?
 3. How many theories of emotion are there?
 7. True or False? James and Lange worked together to create the James-Lange theory.
 10. What theory of emotion states that if a situation is identified as a bad one, the resulting emotion will be negative?

11. A series of cognitive, physiological, and behavioral responses make up:
 12. What was the first theory of emotion?
 13. Event -> Physiological response -> Interpretation of Physiological response ->
 14. what theory of emotion is considered to be the most complex?

Down

1. according to Lazarus' theory, emotion occurs at the same time as:

4. the cannon-bard theory believed that which other major theory had major flaws?
 5. James-Lange came up with this theory of emotion in this century:
 6. Name the theory of emotion that says that emotion and physiological response occur simultaneously.
 8. according to Lazarus' theory, the person's opinion on the event controls the person's:
 9. What did the Cannon-Bard theory say about the James-Lang theory?