

Therapeutic Agents for the Musculoskeletal System

Across

- 2. holds bones together at joints allowing for articulation
- 5. dense bone found near the bone's surface; aka cortical bone
- 7. found in the inner part of bones, stores bone marrow; aka cancellous bone
- 9. this type of muscle attaches to bones to enable movement like walking, talking, and chewing
- 10. this type of muscle keeps the heart pumping regularly

Down

- 1. main function is to generate blood cells
- 3. thin strands of bone
- 4. this type of muscle lines hollow organs such as the stomach or intestines
- 6. calcium and phosphorus are two important materials stored in the _____
- 8. attaches to bone allowing for movement