

Therapeutic Recreation

Across

3. This program is used to improve the quality of life of seniors by integrating art models into overall programming in a long term care environment.

7. "....." consists of every resident within the home, who wishes to have their voices/concerns heard, with the goal of finding viable solutions.

9. These games require skills such as concentration, strategizing and working with a teammate to outscore the opponent.

12. It is important to ensure that older adults are getting out, either independently or with supervision. The benefits of this program include feelings of independence, a sense of freedom, and reduced boredom.

16. This program is used to stimulate people's sense and minds through color, light, textures, aromas, electronic and interactive devices.

17. "...." is a growing field that uses animals to help people recover from or better cope with health problems.

19. An Approach used by TR that allows clients to take more of a lead in discussions so that, in the process, they will discover their own solutions

20. Function, all the normal processes associated with our thoughts or mental processes

Down

1. Residents may attend on a weekly basis or with one particular denomination

2. Treatment: care provided to improve a situation

4. Time used in a manner designed for therapeutic refreshment of one's body or mind.

5. This program helps participants achieve good health, inner peace, and harmony.

6. By sharing their knowledge and experiences with youth, older adults can feel that they have impacted someone else's life.

8. An approach used by TR that emphasizes people's self-determination and strengths.

10. "....." is renowned for skill development and is often intended to promote goodness or to improve human quality of life.

11. "What is good for the body, is good for the brain"

13. What is the name of the program that provides the person with well loved and meaningful music

14. One of this program is to Receive intellectual stimulation to improve and/or maintain cognitive functioning. During this program, residents have a chance to win a prize or money.

15. Word that describes a "Treatment to eliminate or control a disease"

18. What is the Therapeutic Recreation Process?