

Things Fall Apart Vocab

Across

- 2. a dry, dusty wind that blows from the Sahara to the Atlantic coast of Africa during the cool months
- 3. the act of achieving or restoring peace; the act of neutralizing people in occupied areas
- 4. intended for a chosen few
- 11. cheerful; light-hearted
- 12. just beginning to exist or come to notice
- 13. to exclude from some right or privilege; to prohibit or prevent

14. young, and inexperienced; immature

16. an African food made from boiled and mashed yam, cassava, or plantain

19. not in harmony; clashing

20. persons or things that announce what will follow

Down

1. powerless; weak; helpless

5. something hateful or disgusting

6. lacking foresight or thrift

7. hairdo

8. objects believed to have magical powers

9. to make amends

10. having a full, deep, rich sound

15. brightly colored, glossy mollusk shells used as money in parts of Africa or Asia

17. a person or place believed to reveal messages from a god or spirit

18. an African tree whose nuts contain caffeine and yield a flavorful extract