

Thinking Vocabulary

Across

5. in language, the smallest unit that carries meaning
6. the rules for combining words into grammatically sensible sentences in a given language
7. beginning about age 2, the stage in speech development during which a child speaks mostly in two-word statements
10. at about 4 months, the stage of speech development in which the infant spontaneously utters various sounds at first unrelated to the household language
11. early speech stage in which a child speaks like a telegram using mostly nouns and verbs and omitting auxiliary words

Down

1. Whorf's hypothesis that language determines the way we think
2. in language, a system of rules that enables us to communicate with and understand others
3. the stage in speech development, from about age 1 to 2, during which a child speaks mostly in single words
4. in language, the smallest distinctive unit of sound
8. the set of rules by which we derive meaning from morphemes, words, and sentences in a given language
9. our spoken, written, or signed words and the ways we combine them to communicate meaning.