

Thomas Edison Crossword

Across

4. Edison was known for building America's economy during the

10. Edison's wife who was nineteen years younger than him whom he married after his first wife died.

11. The telegraph company that would often buy Edison's inventions and was the leading company of its trade.

12. Edison received 1,093 of these in his lifetime.

13. Edison's first wife who was sixteen at the time that they married.

14. The city in which Edison set up his first laboratory and hired machinists.

15. Edison's invention that was the first thing to allow someone to record sound.

Down

1. The city where Edison landed a job at the Western Union Company. It was America's center for science and culture at the time.

2. Edison's first invention which synchronized several stock tickers' transactions.

3. The amount of siblings Edison had.

5. Edison worked as an operator of these at age 15 after being taught how to use them by his father.

6. Edison is widely known for being one of these. He quit his job as a telegrapher to become one of these.

7. Edison was the first person to project one of these, and he held the first screening at Koster and Bial's Music Hall in New York City

8. Edison's rival: an engineering visionary with academic training.

9. Although he did not invent the first one, Edison improved this so that it could be commercially practical and efficient.