

Name: _____

Tissue

Across

1. unstrained muscles are also called
5. this tissue performs three function absorption, secretion and protection
12. this tissue provides flexibility in plants
13. cells of cork contain a chemical called
14. one of the non living element of xylem
15. this smoothens bone surface at joints and is also present in nose, ears, trachea

16. this tissue connects muscles to bone and fibrous in nature
 17. these cells are extremely thin and flat and form a delicate lining.
 18. transpiration is through
 19. fat in our body is called
- ## Down
2. the plasma membrane is responsible for deciding what can enter or leave the cell. this is called
 3. the process of taking up a permanent shape, size and a function is called

4. it store nutrients, food and water in plants
6. tissue present at the base of the leaves or internodes on twigs is the
7. tissue present in brain
8. in desert plants, epidermis has a thick waxy coating of chemical
9. connective tissue with a fluid matrix
10. tissue present in respiratory tract
11. tissue have a prominent nuclei and dense cytoplasm but they lack vacuole