

Tissues Vocabulary Review

Across

- 3. the study of tissues
- 8. the term given to an area where there are NO blood vessels
- 9. a collection of differentiated , specialized cells
- 10. type of connective tissue responsible for connecting bone to muscle
- 11. germ layer that differentiates into the integumentary system and nervous system

- 12. a type of junction, which fastens cells to one another allowing them to contract and expand frequently

Down

- 1. type of junction that creates a tight seal between cells allowing contact inhibition
- 2. Germ layer, which differentiates into the GI tract, bladder and respiratory tract
- 4. a person who studies DISEASED tissues, performs biopsies

- 5. form of connective tissue responsible for connecting bone to bone
- 6. a form of junction that allows signals to pass freely through various types of cells
- 7. germ layer that differentiates into muscle tissue and connective tissues