

Title

Across

2. 66 acre preserve in downtown Bridgton
 5. The variety of species in an ecosystem
 6. our largest frog, known for a deep rolling voice
 12. Back, Middle, Mud, Little Mud and ___ Pond.
 13. Winding curve of bend in a river.
 16. The natural layer of fallen leaves, pine needles, twigs.
 17. Facing Forward, I am the left side of the boat
 18. a color worn in the fall months in the woods
 21. a member of the sunfish family with red-orange spot on ear flap
 24. A tea-colored lake probably has a lot of natural ___

25. invasive aquatic plant known for its fruits with sharp barbs
 27. "who cooks for you, who cooks for you allll?"
 29. the invasive insect recently discovered in Bridgton ash trees
 30. To reduce your wake, keep the bow
 31. a body of permeable rock which can contain or transmit groundwater

Down

1. LEA supporters
 3. people who study inland waters - lakes, rivers, streams, wetlands, and groundwater
 4. hard water
 7. a nautical hardware that is used to secure a line
 8. Wetland ___ is a process that determines which parts of the landscape are wetlands.

9. Where you steer the boat
 10. 38 mile river that originates in Bethel
 11. Red-breasted, hooded, and common
 14. A crescent-shaped lake formed in the abandoned channel.
 15. bizarre "spagetti faced" mole burros through mud or snow
 19. Eastern newt life stage between aquatic and adult. Red ___
 20. A small stream that flows into a larger stream
 22. widespread invasive animal, the Chinese ___ snail
 23. related to dragonflies, distinguished by wings folded when resting
 26. An organism that only gains energy from plants
 28. Lakes like less ___