

Name: _____

To Kill a Mocking Bird Novel Study Crossword

Across

3. To set down the foot or feet in walking.(p.42)

5. Someone who is reserved, not loud and talkative. The word itself refers to the trait of reticence, of seeming aloof and uncommunicative. A person who might be snobby, naturally quiet, or just shy.(p.4)

8. lacking significance or liveliness or spirit or zest (p.3)

10. showing irritation or ill humor by a gloomy silence or reserve.(p.173)

12. disagreeable to deal with; contentious; peevish.(p.126)

13. To burn or reduce to charcoal.(p.57)

14. exceptional valor, bravery, or ability, especially in combat or battle.(p.57)

15. something preliminary or introductory.(p.150)

Down

1. proceeding from or showing pride in or concern about one's appearance, qualities, etc.; resulting from or displaying vanity.(p.108)

2. to make more certain; confirm.(p.193)

4. Write in a hurried or careless way (p.21)

6. to continue to cause keen irritation or bitter resentment within the mind; fester; be painful.(p.156)

7. to present, execute, or do in a poor or tasteless manner.(p.76)

9. Provide physical relief, as from pain (p.1)

11. to utter a low murmuring sound.(p.96)

Word Bank

Vain

preface

cantankerous

rankling

sullen

Scrawling

perpetrated charred

crooned

Assauge

vapid

Taciturn

corroborate

prowess

Treader