

Name: _____

Date: _____

Toll-House

Across

- 3. extremely upset, emotional, or agitated
- 7. an old British gold coin
- 10. tolerantly; leniently
- 12. to gather, grow, or increase over a period of time
- 13. something new, original, or exciting, though often for only a short time

14. to persuade somebody to believe something that is untrue or unreal

15. a firm decision to do something; determination

Down

- 1. upright posts supporting handrails
- 2. contempt or mockery
- 4. to have appeared as a large or indistinct, and sometimes menacing, shape

5. bewilderment; confusion

6. overcome with shock and dismay; horrified

8. a burial place

9. U,K spelling of draft; a current of air in an enclosed space

11. used something such as a tool or weapon in a diligent or skillful way; applied

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|-------------|-------------|-----------|-----------|------------|
| aghast | resolution | draught | derision | accumulate |
| novelty | delude | loomed | balusters | perplexity |
| indulgently | overwrought | sovereign | sepulcher | plied |