

Name: _____

Date: _____

Tone Practice

Across

- 3. Antonyms: Unscholarly, Interesting, Engaging
- 4. Your attitude is _____ when you don't have any energy to care about your own problems.
- 7. Antonyms: Respectful and Reverent
- 11. Their plan was bold, daring, and almost reckless, or _____.
- 15. Antonyms: Unemotional, Monotonous, and Unexciting
- 16. She earned her PHD from Harvard last spring, it is safe to say that she is well-read and _____.
- 18. He was _____ and thought deeply about the speech he has just heard.
- 19. Society has a history of treating others unfairly and being _____.
- 20. The school was buttoned up, _____, and was viewed as the most successful school in the state.
- 22. Antonyms: Irreverent, Disrespectful, and Cheeky
- 23. Synonyms: Downcast, Gloomy, and Lugubrious

- 24. Antonyms: Connected and Involved
- 26. He was truly _____ and fantasized about his future daily.
- 27. The man had a vicious and _____ face and she knew that she was in danger.
- 28. Yelling at someone with little to no reason would be considered _____.
- 29. The author was very _____ and attempted to explain why I should adopt his way of life.
- 30. Synonyms: Grateful, Enthusiastic, and Heartfelt

Down

- 1. Judges and Juries must be _____ so as to be fair.
- 2. Synonyms: Smug, Moralistic, and Self-Satisfied
- 5. There was a report of a fire station burning down, this is considered _____.
- 6. The forrest was a _____ wonderland when it was covered in snow.

- 8. Antonyms: Heartless, Uncaring, and Unsympathetic
- 9. He deeply regretted the entire argument, and found himself struggling for peace.
- 10. Synonyms: Cheerful, Good-Natured, and Amiable
- 12. Synonyms: Threatening, Foreboding, and Unpromising
- 13. Her voice was shaking as she realized how _____ it was to talk to so many people.
- 14. Synonyms: Resentful, Disgruntled, and Begrudging
- 17. Synonyms: Contested, Annoyed, and at Issue
- 21. A song from her childhood came on the radio and she immediately felt _____.
- 25. Synonyms: Insulting, Ridiculing, and Mocking