

Topic 4 - Labour Markets

Across

- 1. ___ is giving some tasks in a business to other organisations outside of your organisation.
- 5. ___ mobility is the ability of labour to move between different occupations in response to wage differentials and employment opportunities
- 7. Number of people in an economy aged over fifteen is the ___.
- 10. ___ is the total number of Australian workers in an economy.
- 11. Labour demand is a ___ demand

- 12. What is an association of employees that represents the interests of its members, particularly relating to pay and working conditions?
- 13. Benefits that many employees receive in addition to their ordinary and overtime payments
- 14. What is the ability of labour to move between locations in response to improved wage differentials and employment opportunities?

Down

- 2. ___ is an example of non-wage outcomes.
- 3. Unemployment numbers/labour force = ___
- 4. ___ may be restricted as a result of government policy decisions or the collective action of those providing labour within an industry.
- 6. ___ unemployment occurs as ppl change jobs, moving from one to another.
- 8. What is the measure of the actual purchasing power of money wages?
- 9. Minimum wages and working conditions legislated by the government or an industrial tribunal