

Total Hip Replacement

Across

- 6. This can be a life threatening complication of surgery
- 7. A (fill in the blank) will teach you specific exercises to strengthen your hip and restore movement for walking and other daily activities
- 8. A common cause of hip pain that is age related "wear and tear"
- 9. A complication of surgery that can occur while you are in the hospital or after you go home

- 10. An autoimmune diseases that causes chronic inflammation of the cartilage causing pain and stiffness

Down

- 1. This device prevents pneumonia during the postoperative phase
- 2. A sudden symptom of a pulmonary embolism
- 3. Another name for a total hip replacement
- 4. This complication is uncommon but can occur in the first few months following surgery
- 5. This device will be used to prevent falls in the hospital and after discharge