

Name: _____

Date: _____

Toxic Material

Across

4. a rule or law that is established and enforced by an authority or authoritative body

8. the process of making something impure, unclean, or harmful

11. to make something impure

12. the discharge of gas or radiation endemic pollution: pollution that is common in a specific area or country

13. a specific class of hydrocarbons, consisting of hydrogen, fluorine, and carbon atoms, that are frequently used in refrigeration

15. the use of machinery to enable large-scale production of something

16. the process of protecting, preserving, or restoring a living entity or natural environment

17. any gas that contributes to the greenhouse effect

18. a substance that is applied to material to make it resistant to catching fire

Down

1. the dismantling of a piece of electronic equipment and responsibly recycling or disposing of its components

2. a compound with a sour taste

3. a substance that makes something (such as water or the atmosphere) dangerous or impure

5. a dangerous characteristic of energy formed through radiation

6. energy sources that do not pollute when they are used

7. a substance used to destroy insects or other organisms that are harmful to crops, plants, and trees

9. gas, smoke, or other vapors that are dangerous to inhale

10. a place where waste is disposed and covered with soil

14. electronic waste in the form of appliances, cell phones, computers, telephones, televisions, and related devices that are thrown away