

Trauma Quiz

Across

3. An injury frequently associated with the chest-versus-steering wheel impact
 6. Diastolic Pressure + 1/3 Pulse Pressure
 10. Occurs when one organ is pushed into another organ
 11. The temporary cavity created by a projectile created by a shock wave
 14. The curved path a bullet follows after it is fired from a gun

15. Coughing up blood

Down

1. Secreted by the adrenal cortex to stimulate kidney cells to retain sodium and water
 2. Sympathetic agent secreted by the adrenal medulla
 4. Found in the aortic arch and the carotid sinuses, these monitor the blood pressure
 5. The swing or wobble around the axis of a projectile's travel

7. These blast injuries include trauma caused by projectiles

8. These injuries usually occur at the point of attachment of an organ
 9. Kinetic Energy equals 1/2 (Mass times _____) Squared
 12. A body in motion will stay in motion until acted upon by an outside force
 13. A fall of greater than _____ times the patients height is considered severe