

Name: _____

Travel

Across

5. The intangible products such as cleaning, ordering food from your room, that are provided when renting a room in a hotel
9. The activity of visiting places of interest in a location.
10. The price to be paid or charged for something, especially goods or services.
11. The time when travelers are allowed to move into their rented room.
12. A place (such as a room in a hotel) where travelers can sleep and find other services.
13. Something that makes life easier or more pleasant. For example, an iron or fridge in the room.

15. A place where people pay to sit and eat meals that are cooked and served on the premises.

Down

1. The time when travelers must pay for their accommodations and leave their rented room.
2. The number of days for which you wish to rent a room.
3. The buses, trains, subways, and other forms of transportation that charge set fares, run on fixed routes, and are available to the public
4. The cost to make use of the space in which to park vehicles, as at a place of business or a public event.

6. A place of settlement, activity, or residence.

7. An arrangement in which something such as a room in a hotel, a seat on an aircraft or a table at a restaurant, is kept for you.

8. Things that are done for enjoyment.

14. A place that has rooms in which people can stay especially when they are traveling: a place that provides food, lodging, and other services for paying guests.

Word Bank

services

rates

accommodation

hotel

parking fees

length of our stay

check-in time

reservation

room amenities

activities

restaurant

check-out time

location

sight seeing

public transportation