

Tropes and Scheme

Across

- 5. a type of logical fallacy; a conclusion is drawn from limited or insufficient evidence
- 7. a type of logical fallacy; a statement that does not follow logically
- 9. an author's choice of words for clear and effective expression
- 11. the use of the same grammatical structure within in a sentence or paragraph
- 15. a direct comparison between two unlike thing (Without "like" or "as")
- 16. an appeal to the audience's emotions
- 17. a literary technique used to create meaning that seems contradict the literal meaning
- 18. an appeal to logic

- 20. a rhetorical device in which specific words or phrases are used to emphasize the importance of a concept or idea
 - 21. a type of logic where general statement are used to form a specific conclusion
 - 22. an intentional and extreme exaggeration
- Down
- 1. A figure of speech that concerns word order.
 - 2. a sentence structure in which the verb comes before the subject
 - 3. figurative language that make comparison in unexpected ways
 - 4. the direct opposite; a rhetorical contract using parallel within a sentence
 - 6. moves from specific details to general concepts

- 8. an opinion or declaration stated with conviction
- 10. a type of logical fallacy; support for a statement that is merely a repetition of the idea
- 12. a reference within a literary work
- 13. non-literal or figurative language
- 14. an appeal to trust the speaker/source of information
- 19. a direct comparison between two unlike things (using "like" or "as")

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|----------------------|---------------------|---------------------|--------------------|
| Irony | Logos | Inductive reasoning | Antithesis |
| Hasty generalization | Non-sequitur | Scheme | Parallel Structure |
| Trope | Metaphor | Assertion | Hyperbole |
| Analogy | Simile | Ethos | Pathos |
| Diction | Allusion | Inverted Word Order | Circular logic |
| Repetition | Deductive reasoning | | |