

Types of Apprenticeships

Across

- 5. A subject which involves designing and maintaining roads, bridges, dams, and similar structures.
- 6. Would you love to problem solve and help people move into their dream career? This apprenticeship will allow you to develop the skills to be able to do this.
- 8. Would you like to shape the future of Scotland's Food Industry? Then this apprenticeship may be for you.
- 10. You can typically find people who do this subject hanging out in labs and assisting scientists to solve problems
- 11. This apprenticeship is ideal for people who would like to help others improve their oral hygiene.

Down

- 1. People who chose this apprenticeship enjoy being leaders and supporting others around them to do their job.
- 2. In this subject you may need to get your hands dirty and use problem solving skills to ensure that someone's vehicle is running safely.
- 3. An apprentice who has completed this subject will have learned how to use equipment to save someone's life during a fire.
- 4. Students who do this apprenticeship will get the opportunity to work alongside people who are dedicated to saving the lives of others.
- 7. If you like the idea of preventing people's information from being stolen online, this apprenticeship may be perfect for you.
- 9. A subject which involves working with numbers in order to help businesses increase their profit.