

Name: _____

Types of Essays

Across

2. A genre of essay that requires students to evaluate an idea, evaluate evidence, expound the idea, and set forth an argument concerning that idea in a clear and concise manner
5. This essay must include an exposition, characters, a plot, rising action, falling action, a climax, and a conclusion.
6. Narrative essays can be written as a book report or _____.

7. This type of essay requires one to break down the subject of a piece of literature, and examine the different parts.
9. They provide step-by-step instructions or guidance to the reader.
10. Expository essays require _____ paragraphs.
11. Process essays can be written in _____ order.
12. This type of essay requires one to state their opinion on a topic based on evidence.

Down

1. The main purpose of this essay is to bring up neutral points and clear up confusion on difficult/big topics.
3. Written discussions that draw from one or more sources.
4. Argumentative essays require you to set aside one paragraph, in which you must state the _____.
8. A genre of essay that asks the student to describe something—object, person, place, experience, emotion, situation, etc.