

Types of Friendships

Across

11. Friendship that are less stable
12. We consider people as Acquintance
13. General principles that prescribe appropriate communication
14. Something you have in Common
15. Two Types of Communication Technology.

Down

1. Gest Stereo types between gay and straight male friendship.
2. One of the most racial shifts in interpersonal relationship
3. Friendship on shared interest & identity Support
4. People you consider as close friends
5. People from different cultures have varied expectation

6. Enabling us to share life events and activities with others.
7. The importance we attribute to our friendships throughout our lives.
8. Goals we achieve in both personal and professional with help of friends.
9. Behavior that conveys understanding
10. Greater liberty in choosing our friends than we do in choosing partners.