

Name: _____

Date: _____

Types of Job roles

Across

5. They connect, engage, support and listen to children and young people in order to make a positive impact, they also promote human rights +wellbeing

6. who are registered nurses/midwives who gain additional experience and provide health education in schools

7. what job role can give immunizations and medication for illness, checks your child's health, growth and development, treat minor injuries and send you to specialists

8. what kind of job role helps young peoples emotional and social development in an informal setting and takes part in counselling, coaching + mentoring

9. what job role helps people of all ages overcome the effects of disabilities caused by illnesses

10. who are specialist practitioners that are usually responsible for supporting children from 0-5 and their families and assessing growth and development

Down

1. what job role provides care for children + adults who have difficulty communicating, eating, drinking and swallowing

2. what job role assesses learning difficulties, reaction to stimuli, emotional, social and cognitive

3. what jobs help with everyday worries, exam stress and relationship issues

4. what job role ensures that SENDCO's are supported in early years settings and ensure educational needs are met