

Types of Wounds

Across

6. Moist wound healing, protect fragile skin, decrease trauma and pain in skin tears are _____ practice

8. collection of dead skin white blood cells and bacteria is known as

10. Wound on the leg/foot that has little drainage, pale pink/black tissue, punched out appearance

13. Wounds on the leg/foot that are shallow with lots of drainage, connected to blood return

14. Good blood glucose control good nutrition reduce high B/P no smoking are forms of

15. a wound caused by shear friction and/or blunt force resulting in a separation of skin layers is a _____ tear

Down

1. The edges of a venous ulcer tend to be

2. Almost a quarter of all people with diabetes will develop a _____ ulcer

3. An Arterial wound is connected to the issue of poor _____ flow

4. these injuries mainly occur over bony prominences

5. 5 keys to prevent pressure ulcers are: _____, skin, keep moving, manage incontinence and moisture, nutrition and hydration

7. The primary strategy for skin tear management is

9. New skin matures tensile strength returns to 50%-80% of it's original, can take over a year

11. Localized collection of pus that can form under the skin

12. Diabetic ulcers arise when the nerve damage from diabetic neuropathy cause the patient to not feel