

U.K. Political and Economic Change

Across

2. The process by which businesses or other organizations develop international influence or start operating on an international scale.

6. a sudden decisive exercise of force in politics; especially : the violent overthrow or alteration of an existing government by a small group

9. Change in mode of rule or management, a form of government, a government in power, a period of rule

10. The policies of monetarism, privatization, and self-help promoted by Margaret Thatcher

11. How a democracy matures

13. The policy of approaching a desired end by gradual stages

14. Go further to protect against change than conservative beliefs, and will "turn back the clock" to an earlier era.

15. Belief in rapid, dramatic changes needed to be made in existing society

16. The obligation of honorable, generous, and responsible behavior associated with high rank or birth

Down

1. Is much less supportive of change in general than are radicalism and liberalism

3. Divisions based on ethnic or cultural identity

4. The privatization of markets in an economy

5. Measurement of the income distribution of a country's residents.

7. Supports reform and gradual change rather than revolution

8. The introduction of a democratic system or democratic principles. The action of making something accessible to everyone.

12. to amend or improve by change of form or removal of faults or abuses