

UNIT 3 - LIGHT YEARS AHEAD

Across

4. A computer that is portable and suitable for use while travelling.
 7. Any object that orbits around another object in space
 10. Synonym of 'To switch on'
 11. The programs and other operating information used by a computer
 12. To connect to the electricity supply
 13. To stop a machine or a light. Synonym of 'To switch off'

14. A phone offering advanced features. E.g. the ability to send emails, surf the Internet, etc.

15. A panel of keys that operate a computer or typewriter.

16. A device used to read electronic books, or eBooks

Down

1. A mobile device, typically with a mobile operating system and touchscreen but similar to a computer.

2. To transfer a file from the Internet or other computer to your own computer

3. To pull out an electrical cord from its socket

5. System which makes use of artificial satellites for providing autonomous geospatial positioning

6. Greater in quality

8. To rise from the ground.

9. To increase the volume