

Name: _____

Date: _____

U.S. Emerges as world power

Across

- 3. An area where another country has power to affect developments
- 6. Journalism based on crude exaggeration
- 8. Policy of admitting people of all nationalities or ethnic groups to a country upon equal terms
- 9. Extreme patriotism
- 10. Negotiations backed by force
- 11. Action of seizing something, especially territory

- 12. Policy of territorial or economic expansion
- 13. the profession, activity, or skill of managing international relations, typically by a country's representatives abroad.
- 14. administrative decisions that are directly related to all issues and activity within a nation's borders.
- 15. Use of a country's financial power to extend its international influence

Down

- 1. U.S. can intervene with affairs of an American republic if threatened
- 2. Drive of all foreigners from China
- 4. a policy of remaining apart from the affairs or interests of other groups, especially the political affairs of other countries.
- 5. Withdrawal of troops in Cuba
- 7. A governments strategy in dealing with other nations

Word Bank

- |                 |                       |                     |                  |
|-----------------|-----------------------|---------------------|------------------|
| Expansionism    | Domestic policy       | Open door policy    | Diplomacy        |
| Isolationism    | Jingoism              | Big stick diplomacy | Annexation       |
| Foreign policy  | Sphere of influence   | Boxer rebellion     | Dollar diplomacy |
| Platt amendment | Roosevelt's corollary | Yellow journalism   |                  |