

U.S. Imperialism

Across

4. He became president after McKinley was assassinated
 6. The belief that the strong survive and the weak should be conquered
 9. A trade deal in China amongst the powerful nations of the world.
 10. exaggerating or inventing stories in order to sell more newspapers
 12. An example of Roosevelt's "Big Stick Foreign Policy" was

13. He opened trade with Japan when he showed up with his Black Ships
 14. English writer Rudyard Kipling's poem which supported the U.S. acquiring the Philippines
 15. Roosevelt's reminder of the Monroe Doctrine
 16. Teddy Roosevelt became a war hero when he charged up this hill

Down

1. American writer who was against Imperialism
 2. to take or acquire

3. Areas of economic control
 5. U.S. battleship which blew up in Havana Harbor in Cuba helping to start the Spanish-American War
 7. In order to gain control of the canal zone, Roosevelt helped Panama break free from this South American country
 8. A brutal war started between the U.S. and this country after we acquired it from Spain
 11. When we first bought Alaska from Russia it was seen as a mistake. Some called it