

US and the World

Across

- 2. To exaggerate or distort information or only report one side of a story.
- 4. What did the U.S do with these Caribbean territories? U.S kept _____ and Guam as territories and relinquished Cuba
- 6. Purchase prompted by Secretary State William Seward was considered ahead of his time.
- 9. The U.S established presence in the _____ in the South Asia region.
- 10. President _____ feared that there could be an ethnic extermination of the Indians.
- 18. Island territory Americans colonized to meet their needs in the Pacific.
- 20. What was the reason behind the American people approving the purchase? They believed that one day _____ would be a part of the U.S
- 21. Seward was ridiculed for pushing to purchase Alaska because it was considered _____ land.
- 22. What did they call the purchase of Alaska?
- 24. Could they become _____?
- 26. The Philippines rebelled against whose presence, resulting in a bloody conflict?

- 29. _____ and pineapples were crops produced in Hawaii.
 - 31. The words "speak softly and carry a big stick" were used to describe President Roosevelt's what?
 - 32. Would they fall under the _____ of the Constitution?
- Down
- 1. February 15, 1898 this armed conflict with Spain caused what? The American _____ Main was sunk.
 - 3. People became _____ toward the Cuban people as a result of the sensationalizing.
 - 5. _____ and Hurst sensationalized these atrocities.
 - 7. Spanish-American war gained what nickname? The _____ war.
 - 8. _____ nations would be urged to agree to the right of free trade between China and any country wanting to do business with them and respect China's independence.
 - 11. President McKinley was _____, leaving Roosevelt as President.
 - 12. The US annexed Hawaii and Samoa as a result of which war?
 - 13. Cuban nationalists rebelled against Spanish rulers resulting in the _____ of many Cubans.

- 14. An act passed by congress which tried to break up tribal lands and give it to individuals.
- 15. Why did Americans believe that it was important to progress into new lands? They felt that America had _____ beyond its borders and it needed new raw materials and markets to sell their goods.
- 16. What was purchased from Russia for 7 million dollars?
- 17. What was Spain's response to the U.S building up troops? They _____ war
- 19. Why did the US build three steel clad ships? _____ its fleet
- 23. The belief that the US should "stay to itself" and stay out of the affairs of other countries, believing that such involvements would lead to conflicts.
- 25. Panama was important because it was a good place to build a _____ that made a "short cut" between the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans.
- 27. what did Americans believe in relation to their expansion into the rest of the world? They believed that they could help less fortunate countries by _____ living conditions and bringing them the Gospel of the Lord.
- 28. What policy did Secretary of State John Hayes propose to gain access to China?
- 30. What would become of the _____ of non-whites?

Word Bank

- | | | | | | |
|------------------|--------------|------------------|------------|-----------------|--------------------|
| Puerto Rico | Canada | Foreign Policy | declared | Splendid Little | Purchase of Alaska |
| Hawaii | jurisdiction | Dawes Act | Alaska | multitude | improving |
| Sugar Cane | massacre | states | Battleship | assassinated | American |
| Philippines | strengthen | European | desolate | Grant | canal |
| Spanish American | Isolationism | Sensationalizing | Pulitzer | sympathetic | Grown |
| Sewards Folly | Open Door | | | | |