

U.S coming to Power

Across

3. a U.S. Marine

5. a nonfiction literary piece that forms part of a publication

8. an updated rifle that was lighter in weight and smoked less than other rifles.

10. American Statesman and author, 26th President of the United States.

11. an artificial waterway used for navigation.

13. comics that are based on something political

14. a cigar shaped, self-propelled underwater projectile launched

15. Treaty between the United States and Spain that officially ended the Spanish-American War.

18. U.S. Admiral who defeated the Spanish fleet in Manila Bay, products with his name were sold in stores.

20. an infectious disease transmitted by the bite of an infected female mosquito.

22. last monarch of Hawaii

24. an explosive device, usually placed in a hidden location

25. the members of a volunteer regiment of the U.S. Cavalry organized chiefly by Teddy Roosevelt for service in the Spanish-American War.

Down

1. a formal agreement between two or more nations

2. infectious disease of subtropical and tropical New World areas, transmitted by a mosquito

4. who the article is by

6. a member of a military force composed of troops who serve on horseback.

7. small independent bands of fighters harass the enemy by surprise attacking

9. government by a sole and absolute ruler of a state such as a king or queen

12. any of a class of warships that are the most heavily armored

16. a large piece of equipment powered by steam used for relocating large amounts of earth

17. citizens of the Philippines.

19. a U.S. infantryman

21. one of a nation's organizations of defense; a nation's fleet of ships

23. the title of the newspaper