

Underrepresented Gifted Students

Across

2. This type of test can be bias and not show quantitative abilities
4. Variety in teaching techniques and adaptations to meet students individual needs
11. Opportunities offered to gifted students to improve or enhance traditionally offered curriculum
12. Teachers can motivate underrepresented gifted learners with engaging activities and building a good _____
13. Activities that build peer relations and reduce prejudice

14. A population of gifted learners that is underrepresented

Down

1. Many underrepresented gifted students get bored and do not perform as expected
3. Lessons that incorporate science, technology, engineering and math that engage and motivate gifted students
5. A formula presented to help determine whether underrepresentation is beyond statistical chance

6. A factor that keeps underrepresented populations from reaching their full potential

7. Underrepresentation of gifted black and hispanic students can be _____
8. A tool used to identify culturally and linguistically diverse students for gifted services
9. Underrepresentation of gifted black and hispanic students can be _____
10. One critical factor in the achievement gap between white gifted learners and underrepresented gifted learners