

Underwater Exploration

Across

- 2. What do you call a group of sea otters?
- 4. What word means of relating to or caused by living organisms?
- 6. What part of a salmon's body help maintain its shape?
- 11. What is the process frogs go through to become a mature frog from tadpole form?
- 12. Frogs are warm-blooded organisms. True or false?
- 13. One of the food the Pacific white-sided dolphin eats is salmon. True or false?

- 14. Frogs breed and produce large amount of tadpoles to avoid extinction. True or false?
 - 15. What do caterpillars form into?
 - 16. What is the opposite of the word biotic?
 - 17. What are some threats frogs have in the environment?
 - 18. What are aquatic mammals called?
 - 19. What is a pupa?
- Down
- 1. Are frogs omnivores, herbivores, or carnivores?

- 3. What or where do butterflies decide to lay their eggs?
- 5. What's the process of producing light to disguise their contour? (for octopus and squids)
- 7. What's the process of changing the colour of the body to blend in with surroundings? (for octopus and squids)
- 8. What are animals with no backbone called?
- 9. what do caterpillars grow into?
- 10. Dolphins, whales, and porpoises are cetaceans. True or false?