

Unit 1: Prologue + Research Methods

Across

- 5. The likely hood that the results are due by chance
- 9. Predicts a possible relationship between two variables
- 10. In an experiment, the outcome variable
- 11. The study of mental processes and behavior

12. Involves the manipulation of an independent variable

Down

- 1. Psychological approach pertaining to our unconscious drives and motives; Freud's methodology
- 2. Debate on whether our genes or our environment determine who we are

- 3. Type of practice that deals with the administration of medicine
- 4. Father of psychology
- 6. Any variable, other than the IV and DV, that can impact the results of a study
- 7. The most occurring scores in a set of numbers
- 8. When looking at a set of test scores, this is defined as the average