

Unit 1 Review

Across

2. the group in an experiment that does not receive the independent variable
8. the Humanistic idea that we should all reach our full potential.
10. the variable in an experiment that a researcher changes
12. psychological theory where we are to make choices to reach our full potential and goals.

Down

1. the largest subfield of psychology in which a psychologist diagnoses disorders
3. Naturalistic _____ is the type of research that might be done in a public park recording what you see.
4. a medical doctor who treats patients with psychological disorders usually involving medication.
5. the variable in an experiment that is measured

6. Psychology is the ----- study of behavior and cognition.

7. the cheapest and best research method for getting data from a large group of people

9. this organization says we should not encourage or allow harm to come to people in experiments

11. the psychologist who is famous for his hierarchy and Humanism's idea of reaching self-actualization