

Unit 1 Vocabulary

Across

2. What is the original copy of a story submitted for publication by an author?
 3. What business involves the production and sale of literature and information?
 6. What are the corrections and improvements made to a manuscript?
 7. What word means to make something known, often publicly?
 14. What is it called when you make a forceful effort to influence another person?
 15. What is a great, noisy, and sometimes violent commotion?
 16. What is a complicated network of paths?

18. What type of remark or sense of humor would show that someone can find humor in dark or difficult situations?
 19. What do you call it when something that used to accomplish a task?
 20. When a result is _____, its accuracy or rightness is called into question.

Down

1. Who is the person who is guilty of doing something wrong or committing a crime?
 4. To be _____ of something is to have something taken away or denied.
 5. What is something called if it is considered amazing or marvelous?
 8. What are matters that have to do with education and schools called?

9. What type of worker makes changes and corrections to books and newspapers to prepare them for publication?
 10. What is the act of chasing after something?
 11. Who is a wise advisor who helps a newcomer or learner?
 12. When actions are carried out in a stern or forbidding manner, they are called what?
 13. What do you call matters that have to do with books, writers, and literature?
 17. What type of noise may sound muffled, reduced, or silenced?