

Unit 2

Across

2. How certain people interpret or respond to events
 3. Students who see the world in connected patterns
 6. Intelligence that deals with a student's ability to recognize and organize the natural environment
 7. Intelligence that deals with a student's ability to make a rhythm, pitch and timbre
 11. approach that provides students prerequisite knowledge, behavior or skill
 16. Instructional approach to compensate for struggling students
 17. Intelligence that deals with the way a student perceives and manipulates spatial and visual elements
 19. Relationships with peers
 20. conditions of how someone prefers to learn

22. students with disabilities

23. A model using genetically or culturally to explain difference in students performance

Down

1. Instruction that responds to the student's differences
 4. A model that displays ethnic differences can create problems in the classroom
 5. students learning ability, health, social skills, family support and emotional well-being
 8. intelligence that deals with a student's sensitivity to the motivation of others and temperament
 9. Intelligence that deals with a student's capacity with grammar, meaning, sounds, and situational contexts
 10. Students who see specific details

12. Teacher asks thorough questions about teaching efforts and differences of the students

13. Relationships with teachers and parents

14. Intelligence that deals with a student's awareness of feelings, beliefs, and thinking processes

15. teaching style that applies a variety of instructional strategies to reach different students

18. intelligence that deals with a student's fine control over body and objects

21. intelligence that deals with a student's capacity with numbers, patterns and logic