

Unit 2 Assessment Personal Finance

Across

5. the amount you pay an insurance company
 8. the amount of time a credit card company gives you to pay
 13. breakdown of credit history
 14. protects consumers when electronically handling money
 15. money that is owed
 16. prices that vary from place to place
 18. money you have to pay yearly
 19. annual percentage rate

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|------------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------------|
| grace period | stock | credit card | electronic funds transfer act |
| truth in lending act | insurance | fair credit billing act | cost of living |
| equal credit opportunity act | debt | debit | fair debt collections act |
| APR | fair credit reporting act | credit score | bond |
| premium | annual fee | credit counselor | credit report |

20. credit card companies cannot discriminate because of this law

Down

1. an act put in place to protect consumers from abusive debt practices
 2. a number given to a consumer based on their ability to pay off loans and pay on time
 3. regulates collection of credit information and access
 4. a law to protect consumers from unlawful billing practices
 6. the ability of buying things without paying right away with a card
 7. a company you pay monthly that you can collect with illness, car accidents, death, ect.
 9. protects you from unfair and inaccurate credit billing
 10. make a monthly payment to gain some of the corporation's earnings
 11. someone who helps guide people with credit
 12. fixed income security
 17. the ability of paying out of your account using a card