

Unit 4.2 Parenting Roles, Responsibilities and Styles

Across

2. Is the use of methods and techniques to teach children self-control

4. The words and actions parents use to influence their children's behavior

7. Includes the physical aspects of childcare, such as feeding, dressing, and bathing children.

8. The principles and beliefs that guide a person's conduct

9. A parenting style in which the main objective is to make children completely obedient.

10. A discipline technique where parents threaten children with being unloved

11. A parenting style in which the parents desire to provide for and protect their children beyond what is in the best interest of children

Down

1. A parenting style in which gives children almost no guidelines or rules

3. Parents discipline their children by reasoning and explaining to them why they should or should not use certain behaviors

5. Training your child to live as part of the larger social group

6. Providing everything a child wants