

Unit 4: Executive Branch

Across

- 9. is a company that is owned by the government and operates with the same independence of a private business, except that the owner is the government.
- 10. Vice President, _____, president pro tempore of the senate, eligible heads of federal executive departments.
- 11. sets a limit on the number of times an individual is eligible for election to the offices, and sets additional eligibility conditions for presidents who succeed to unexpired terms.

Down

- 1. a body of people representing the states of the U.S. who formally cast votes for the election of the president and vice president
- 2. What are formal qualifications a person must have in order to become President of United States?
- 3. is a federal agency, commission, or board that is not under the direction of the executive.
- 4. says if the president becomes unable to do their job, the vice president becomes the president.

- 5. sets the dates at which federal government elected offices end.
- 6. the committee of senior ministers responsible for controlling government policy.
- 7. What is a President's term in office?
- 8. One of the major flaws with electoral college is that a candidate can win the _____ vote, but lose the electoral vote, thereby losing the election
- 12. How many electoral votes are needed to win the Presidential election.