

Unit One: Life in Christ

Across

2. God-given divine help empowering us to live as his adopted daughters and sons.

3. The gift of God that is a part of every human being that helps us judge right from wrong.

6. The power to know God, ourselves, and others; the power to reflect on how God is part of our lives.

8. Knowingly and willingly choosing to do something that is gravely contrary to God's law. It completely kills the life of grace within us.

11. The ability to recognize God as part of our lives and to choose to center our lives around him. The power to choose between good and evil.

12. Living our life in Christ; the characteristic of a person who is in right relationship with God. It refers to God's presence with us and our faithfulness to God.

13. They are the 'attitudes' of happiness. They describe the happiness of those who keep their lives focused and centered on God.

Down

1. God sharing his life and love with us; the gift of God's life and love that makes us holy; living in communion with the Holy Trinity.

4. The foundation of moral life for everyone; the original sense of right and wrong that is part of our very being. It enables us by human reason to know good and evil.

5. The term that describes the way we have been created to live. A means of evaluating whether our actions are good or evil and judging whether our actions lead us to God or away from God.

7. Inspired writers of the Gospel; Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.

9. The spiritual part of who we are that is immortal and never dies; our innermost being; that which bears the imprint of the image of God.

10. A sin less serious than a mortal. It weakens our love for God and for one another.
