

Unit Six: Personality Review Puzzle

Across

2. Consistently get the same measure on repeated administrations of a test
 8. Standards that enables one to compare an individual's performance to a group
 12. Skills involving mental rotation and thinking in terms of physical space
 14. Ability to accurately assess, evaluate and regulate feelings
 16. skilled in reason and calculations intelligence
 19. Skills understanding and interacting with other people such as those in sales
 20. Skilled in use of words/language intelligence

Down

1. Frenchman who developed one of the first tests of intelligence based on chronological age
 3. type of intelligence related to knowing one's self
 4. Viewed intelligence as a unitary factor of mental ability called a "g" factor
 5. Accumulation of information, knowledge and skills acquired through education and experience
 6. Advocates for multiple intelligences including eight ways that one can be smart
 7. type of intelligence associated with a keen sense of body awareness
 9. Developed the triarchic theory of intelligence

10. Navigating your way home through an unfamiliar route due to road construction would draw upon this type of intelligence
 11. Developed most common contemporary assessment of intelligence
 13. Intelligence related to overall success in living (common sense)
 15. Tasks that require you to compare, contrast, or evaluate are using this component of the triarchic theory of intelligence
 17. Skills involving music intelligence
 18. measuring what you intend to measure