

Name: _____

Date: _____

Urban Legends

Across

2. The story is about the "real-life" paranormal experiences of George and Kathleen Lutz and their three children at 112 Ocean Avenue, a large Dutch colonial house in _____, New York.
3. The mysterious creature resembles a gigantic gorilla and many people believe it lives in the northwestern forests of the United States.
8. The _____ Project
9. Between 6 and 7 feet tall, the _____ supposedly hides near wooded areas so he can blend in among the trees and the darkness. His face is white and featureless.
10. When a _____ Calls: The classic babysitter horror story features tormenting calls that turn out to be coming from inside the house.

Down

1. according to this myth if you turn out the lights, look into a mirror, and say _____ three times then you will summon a spirit.
4. Aren't you glad you didn't turn on the _____?
5. The mythical creature that has as many names as there are countries in the world is without a doubt the most famous fictional figure older people "invented" so they could frighten naughty children who won't behave, eat their food, or go to bed.
6. A friendly traveler, broken down at the side of the road, who was actually a murderous savage planning to turn on any good Samaritan who offers assistance.
7. Daniel Robitaille, who became _____, was an ex-slave who was punished for falling in love with a rich (white) land-owner's daughter. He had his hand cut off, was covered in honey, then stung to death by bees.