

Uses of Metals Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. To be drawn or pulled towards something.
4. A piece of metal that attracts or repels other magnets when they are placed nearby.
8. An invisible force of attraction or repulsion.
9. The process that occurs when certain metals are exposed to air or water for a long time.
10. To be pushed away from something.

Down

1. This metal can be used for kitchen sinks and cutlery.
3. Materials which transfer heat very quickly.
5. This metal is strongly attracted by magnets.
6. This metal is made of carbon, iron and silicon.
7. This metal is shiny, tough, a good conductor of heat and electricity and it does not rust.