

VIETNAM WAR v. COUNTERCULTURE

Across

2. Creator and leader of Democratic Republic of Vietnam in 1945.

6. Papers that came from the Pentagon and were posted in The New York Times saying that Lyndon B. Johnson had lied about the Gulf of Tonkin incident.

8. A protest that took place in 1964-1965 on the campus of the University of California. It was to show how the U.S. government has removed/taken away the people's right of freedom of speech in the 1st Amendment.

10. A term used to describe the acts in the 1960's and 1970's that antiwar protesters did to go against the Vietnam War.

11. An offensive that the NVA launched to crumble South Vietnam by launching a massive assault on all the cities and villages in South Vietnam on the Chinese holiday called "Tet." Militarily speaking, the offensive

12. A resolution passed by congress to give the president the power to do anything with the military to protect the safety of the U.S.A.

Down

1. A group in South Vietnam that believed that communism was best for Vietnam's government and fought for communism against the South Vietnamese military and the U.S. military.

3. The culture which is differs from the social "norm."

4. The act of removing U.S. military from Vietnam and letting South Vietnam fight it's own fight.

5. A communist group formed by Ho Chi Minh to free Vietnam from the French Empire and unify Vietnam under communism.

7. The military of South Vietnam. It was poorly trained and poorly armed. It was disbanded after Saigon fell to the NVA.

9. A activist group formed by students in the United States to protest against wrongful actions in the Vietnam War.

Word Bank

Vietminh

Pentagon Papers

Ho Chi Minh

Vietcong

SDS

New Left

Tonkin Gulf Resolution

Counterculture

Vietnamization

Free speech movement

ARVN

Tet offensive