

VITAL SIGNS

Across

- 5. Do not tell a person when you are counting this vital sign
- 9. Temperature taken in the armpit
- 11. How many inches to insert a rectal thermometer
- 13. Do not put a thermometer in the mouth of a person who is _____
- 14. Exhaling air out of the lungs
- 17. Consists of one act of breathing in and out
- 18. Temperature taken in the mouth

- 19. Never measure a B/P on the side a resident has had a _____ (type of surgery)
- 20. Measure that tells about how well the heart is working

Down

- 1. Sometimes called the fifth vital sign
- 2. This temperature is considered the most accurate
- 3. Gently pull the outside edge of the ear up and _____ to straighten the ear canal for a tympanic temperature
- 4. Blood pressure measurement of the heart at rest

- 6. Most common site for checking the pulse
- 7. Number of heartbeats in one minute
- 8. Process of breathing air into the lungs
- 10. Blood pressure measurement of the heart at work
- 12. One sign a resident may be in pain
- 15. A pulse of 110 would be considered _____
- 16. A blood pressure reading of 80/50 would be considered _____