

Verbal Intercultural Communication

Across

- 6. Subjective, personal meaning of words
- 9. Rules of combining phonemes
- 12. Relationship of words to one another
- 14. Study of the meaning of words
- 15. Secret language used withing larger groups to keep others out or from understanding
- 16. Words, actions, or objects that stand for or represent meaning
- 17. Orally transferring codes from one language to another

18. Transferring written codes from one language to another

19. Effect of language on human perceptions and behavior

Down

- 1. Equivalence that seeks a word in target language in source language
- 2. Spoken code that creates meaning and shapes a culture's thoughts on the world
- 3. Set of rules about the use of words in the creation of messages

4. Words or terms shared by those with a common experience/ profession

5. "consisting of words"

7. Objective, textbook definition of words

8. Combination of phonemes

10. Distinguishable marks of pronunciation

11. The only language that capitalizes the letter i

13. Expressions that have meaning despite the usual meaning