

Vet Topics Lecture 1

Across

2. What type of caging systems will reduce your risk of allergies?

5. _____ is a bacteria that can cause respiratory disease in primates.

12. These glands produce a red pigment called porphyrin in the tears

14. How many members are on the IACUC committee?

15. Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee

17. humans chronically exposed to rodents have an increased risk of developing _____.

18. Proliferative Ileitis is common in hamsters. What is it commonly known as?

20. Old world monkeys will never have _____ tails.

21. 0.5mL is usually the maximum volume to inject _____.

22. The most medical problems in non traditional species are directly related to problems with _____.

23. You must have a recent _____ skin test on file if you work with NHPs.

Down

1. NIH

3. Restraint at the tip of a mouse tail will result in _____.

4. This is an intracellular pathogen that is the most common cause of respiratory disease in rats and mice.

6. Rats and horses have no _____.

7. What is the area you collect blood on top of the foot called?

8. The US Dept of Ag (USDA) upholds the _____.

9. This zoonotic disease occurs naturally in macaques

10. Rodents cannot _____, so fasting is not required or recommended.

11. _____ have stress induced seizures, so no treatment is needed.

13. New world monkeys have _____ vision.

16. Office of Laboratory Animal Welfare

19. How many types of bacteria is rat bite fever caused by?