

Vietnam, Nixon, Johnson, Ford, Carter, Reagan Review

Across

- 4. This conflict ended while Ford was President.
- 5. The Soviet Union built this wall to keep people from fleeing into West Berlin. It was torn down in 1989.
- 6. This was Ford's plan to stop rapid inflation in the USA.
- 10. This was a defense system that sought to shoot down USSR missiles, should they be fired at the USA. Many asserted it was expensive and unrealistic.
- 12. This was a Fundamentalist Christian political group led by Jerry Falwell.
- 14. He was elected President in 1978 and only served one term.
- 16. Ford _____ Nixon of all crimes connected to Watergate.
- 17. The Oil and Petroleum Exporting Countries negatively impacted the USA economy by raising gas prices in the 1970s.

- 19. : He was the leader of Egypt during the Camp David Accords.
 - 20. He was the Republican candidate in the Election of 1964.
 - 21. This policy stated the USA must cooperate and dialog with powerful Communist nations.
 - 22. This is when money is worth less over time and it grew rapidly in the 1970s.
 - 23. This is when the government reduces the rules it places on businesses in the economy.
 - 24. This is the economic theory that low taxes will result in the rich creating more jobs and increase the health of the economy.
- Down
- 1. He was the leader of the USSR when the Cold War began.
 - 2. This meeting that Ford attended caused many to fear that the USA was diminishing its support for the independence of the Baltic States.

- 3. This nation faced Communist like uprisings and Reagan wanted to see the Contras defeat the Communist uprisings.
- 7. He was a conservative Supreme Court Justice appointed by Reagan.
- 8. He was a pastor from Virginia who tried to unite Fundamentalist Christians into a political alliance.
- 9. He was an advisor to Nixon and Ford and supported Realpolitik.
- 11. In this incident, Reagan's administration sold weapons to Iran, to release American hostages in Lebanon, and gave the money to Contras in Central America.
- 13. This rebel group opposed Communist like governments in Central America.
- 15. This is when the USA government spends more than they allocated in the budget.
- 18. This was Gorbachev's plan to be more open to Democracy and individual freedoms in the USSR.