

Vocab #4

Across

- 3. Study of ex: biology
- 5. A device in which a character in a drama makes a short speech which is heard by the audience but not by other characters in the play.
- 6. Count, number ex:numeral
- 11. Result
- 12. Straight, correct ex: orthodox
- 13. Measurement of time
- 14. Nine ex: nonagenarian

15. A speech on stage alone that allows the character to speak his or her thoughts aloud for audience hear/ soap opera style

19. Change, influence

20. To be (verb)

Down

1. conclusion of any literary work, providing necessary exposition to end the story. Sometimes progresses story farther than actual conclusion did

2. All or every ex: omnipotent

4. Against, oppose ex:obstruct

7. The release of the feelings of pity and fear that according to Aristotle occur in the audience of tragic drama.

8. New ex: novice

9. introduction of any literary work, especially in a play that provides necessary exposition to the story

10. Night ex: nocturnal

16. Eight ex: octagon

17. Possessive (pronoun)

18. Deny ex: negate