

Vocab Project

Across

5. Most students (blank) having to do vocab projects for english class. (Loath)
 6. Many young children (blank) their parents. (Pester)
 12. Many people (blank) someone else when they feel they are better than them. (Patronize)
 14. Many slaves in the 1800's were actually (blank). (Mulattoes)
 15. Class always becomes a (blank) when the teacher leaves. (Hubbub)
 16. Just about everything in the deep south was (blank) at one time. (Segregated)
 17. Every english teacher I've known has been an (blank) reader. (Avid)
 18. The mother and daughter were proud of their (blank). (Kinship)
 20. The Nazis forced the Jews to live in (blank). (Ghettos)
 21. The possession of dangerous weapons requires a great deal of (blank). (Morality)

22. Every Sunday morning, the entire town can hear the (blank) of the church bells. (Clangor)
 23. A judge will (blank) someone to a life sentence. (Condemn)
 25. The (blank) off of other driver's windshield can make you go temporarily blind. (Glint)
 26. Many black people faced racial (blank) during the 50's and 60's. (discrimination)
 27. The comedian's bad joke only made a few people (blank). (Chortle)
Down
 1. Cats and dogs are not known to have a very (blank) relationship. (harmonious)
 2. People can be arrested for printing (blank) dollar bills. (Counterfeit)
 3. People from all over donate goods after a hurricane to help relieve the (blank) of the people affected. (plight)
 4. The (blank) between the two good friends was quite hilarious. (Banter)

7. Many people who are racist are considered to be (blank). (Bigots)
 8. A cop from Ohio can not arrest someone in California because he will be out of his (blank). (Jurisdiction)
 9. One family was obviously the most (blank) in the community. (Affluent)
 10. The students had a strong dislike for the school's (blank) food. (Anodyne)
 11. The girl recieved her grandmother's (blank) house from her will. (Derelict)
 13. Nobody enjoyed his (blank) suit that he wore to the gathering. (Garish)
 19. The smell of Ryan's feet (blank) through out the room. (Permeated)
 24. Many people enter a state of (blank) when they get a concussion. (Oblivion)